

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular Correspondent.)
Washington, May 20, 1899.

Hen Samuel J. Randall who has been confined to his residence in this city for several weeks past is now much better, although not yet well enough to get out of doors. He contemplates spending the summer at the seashore.

Solicitor General Jenks, of the Department of Justice, who tendered his resignation at the beginning of the present administration, has been notified of his acceptance by the President to take effect on the 15th inst. Mr. Jenks will continue in the service of the Government as counsel in the telephone cases until they are disposed of. This position was the bone of contention which brought on the recent bitter wrangle between Senators Sherman and Quay. It was privately promised to Sherman's candidate Alphonzo Hart, of Ohio, some weeks ago, but for some unknown cause the appointment has not yet been publicly announced.

Ex-Senator Riddleberger, would-be Congressman Laughlin and other anti-Mahone republicans came to Washington and chided the President all they want to, but so far everything given out in Virginia has gone to a Mahone man.

A big scramble is now taking place at the Government printing office. Palmer, the new principal printer having taken charge of the office Monday, since which time he has hardly been allowed an opportunity to eat or sleep so great is the rush. He has made his few appointments yet, but one of those few, Chief time keeper was secured by ex-Senator "Billy" Chandler, of New Hampshire, who is one of Palmer's henchmen.

"Billy's" contract for the year's supplies for the office are made next month.

Chief Justice Fuller, has gone to Norfolk, and from there he will proceed to South Carolina on his district tour.

Harrison's first negro appointment—Rev. James Townsend of Indiana, to be recorder of the General Land office has created quite a commotion in the land office. In the division of which Townsend is to be Chief there are 25 white ladies clerks and every one of them is trying to get transferred to some other division in order to escape the negro chief. As one of the ladies puts it, "We naturally have to pay a certain amount of court and deference to our Chief, and it will be very disagreeable for me to treat a negro as my superior. I shall get into some other division if I can; if not I suppose I shall have to stand it, as my bread and butter depends upon it."

Oklahoma does not propose getting left in the great scramble for office. Corporal Tanner has appointed a board of pension examiners for Guthrie, and the Civil Service Commissioners have received a letter asking how soon examinations are to be held in Oklahoma.

It is said that the Sherman and Raker factions of Ohio republicans have got up a compromise on the Federal office in Cincinnati, and that ex-Mayor Amos Smith will be the surveyor and Col. D. W. McClung collector. The first is a Sherman man and the latter pins his faith to Foraker.

A man has appeared here as a candidate for office that every respectable man in the country should rejoice to see disappointed. I refer to W. E. Haskell, editor of the Minneapolis Tribune, who wants to be Minnesota's Governor, who wants to be minister to Denmark. Haskell is the man who publicly insulted Mrs. Cleveland by a scandalous editorial in the columns of his paper where he called her husband the guests of his city. It is surprising that he could get anybody to endorse his application.

This Court of Claims has decided that the celebrated Triggs words, which have been in the custody of the Treasury department ever since the war should be turned over to Mr. Myers, the executor of the General Triggs' estate.

Ex-Congressman Ochiltree, who spends his time in New York, but for political purposes, claims a residence in Texas, says that Harrison has given him control of all the Federal patronage of Texas. It may be just as Mr. Ochiltree says, but you know Mr. Ochiltree is the champion romancer of the country.

Ex-Public Printer Benedict, and his brother, ex-Chief clerk of the Government printing office, have been presented with handsome gold-headed canes by the clerical force of that office.

The Dakota Hustler.
I met the man in Omaha who boomed Palestine city, Dak., and as I had been out there and found it a tract of land without a house or an inhabitant, I was naturally anxious for further particulars. I had received one of his circulars and I asked him:

"You spoke of six railroads as certain to come to the place. What was to bring them?"
"Geographical situation, sir, I couldn't see how they could possibly get by the town. I had the finest bed of gravel you ever saw, and railroads always want gravel. I put the number at six, but that was a low estimate."

"In speaking of the climate you said a man could go in his shirt sleeves in January."
"So he could—did it myself; it would have been more comfortable with two overcoats on, but I was experimenting with the climate."
"You said you gathered strawberries in December."
"Exactly. They were in a can, but I forgot to state that fact. I write carefully when in a hurry."

"And you said that plowing was going on all winter?"
"So it was. Did I state the sort of plowing?"
"I think not."
"Careless in me sir. We begin snow-plowing in November and keep it up until April. I am always cheerfully willing to explain these little matters."

"You had a thousand inhabitants and were to have five times that number within a year?"
"Certainly. Had a large Indian camp there at the time. An Indian is an inhabitant, I suppose. The laborers employed on six railroads would have made up the remainder. It was a low estimate."

"How about coal being found on the ground?"
"I found it, sir. I scattered 100

A Scene and Its Lesson.

A young man once advised me to advocate pure moral suasion. At meeting where this young man was present I said to the audience, pointing to him, "Some say we ought to advocate moral suasion exclusively. Now I will give you a fact. Thirteen miles from this place there lived a woman who was a good wife, a good mother, a good woman." I then related her story as she told it.

"My husband is a drunkard; I have worked and hoped and prayed, but I almost gave up in despair. He went away and was gone ten days. He came back ill with the small-pox. Two of the children took it, and both of them died. I nursed my husband through his last sickness—watched over him night and day, feeling that he could drink again, not ever again abuse me. I thought he would remember all this terrible experience."

"And your terms were only $30 a lot, house or resident?"
"Only $30, sir, which you must admit was wonderfully cheap. Nothing like it ever offered the great American public. I sold over 900, sir."

"But what was the matter with the woman?"
"Circumstance, sir. It was suddenly discovered that my title to the land was defective—in fact, that I had no title. Anybody, I assure you. But for that I might have sold 3,000 lots. Great drawback to me, sir."

"But what of the 900 purchasers of lots?"
"I feel for them, sir—feel for the man who is the victim of disappointment. I may find another town further West, and if I do my first move will be to sell every one of the 900 a $200 lot for $100. I'll be glad to do it, sir—glad. Good day, sir—N. Y. Sun."

Secrets Read in the Face.
A man's occupation or condition has a good deal to do with making his facial expression. Intellectual pursuits, like the student of the scholarly profession, when coupled with temperate and moral habits of life brighten the face and give a person a superior look. Magnanimity of nature, or bright glad face, but in this case, a man may have face that does not please anybody, because of a love of self to the exclusion of all others, notwithstanding his learning and worldly shrewdness.

Soldiers get a hard, severe look, overworked laborers constantly look tired, reporters look inquisitive, mathematicians look austere, judges become grave, even when out of the bench. A man who has had domestic trouble looks all broken up.

An example of the ludicrous side of this subject is to see a third-class lawyer standing around a police court looking as wise as an owl. I say, "There's the butcher's face, the ministerial face, the lawyers face, the doctors face, the hoodlum's face, all so distant each from the other and singly, that I seldom fail to recognize those callings showing through the faces. And what city boy can not recognize a genuine farmer on the street as a farmer the moment he sees him."—Herald of Health.

Whither We Are Tending.
The elegant Patrick Henry said: "We can only judge the future by the past."
Look at the past—

When Egypt went down 3 per cent. of her population owned 67 per cent. of her wealth. The people were starved to death.

When Babylon went down 2 per cent. of the population owned all the wealth. The people were starved to death.

When Persia went down 1 per cent. of the population owned the land.

When Rome went down 1800 men owned all the known world.

For the past twenty years the United States has rapidly followed in the steps of these old nations. Here are the figures:

In 1850 capitalists owned 37 1/2 per cent. of the nation's wealth.

In 1870 they own 93 per cent.—Boston Progress.

R. A. Gunn, M. D., Dean, and surgeon of the United States Medical College, editor of the Medical Tribune, author of Gunn's New Improved hand book of Hygiene and domestic medicine, in reference to a case of Bright's disease, says in his own signature: "I was greatly surprised to observe a decided improvement within a month. Within four months, no tube casts could be found and only a trace of albumen and, as he expressed it, he felt perfectly well. After this demonstration of the power, I prescribed it in full doses in both acute and chronic Bright's disease with the most satisfactory results."

Frederick T. Roberts, M. D., professor in University College, London, Eng., examiner in medicine, Royal College of Surgeons, says in reference to advanced kidney disease: "Complications are met, such as consumption, heart disease, morbid conditions, liver affections." Warner's Safe Cure cures these affections by putting the kidneys in a healthy condition, thereby enabling them to expel the waste or poisonous matter from the system.

A lot of cutaneous belt a meeting in Chicago the other day, denounced the coming centennial celebration, defamed Washington and pronounced the constitution a covenant with hell. This is the kind of talk that is being uttered by a lot of the rabble in the interest of the ram-panquet of the country.

The action of Secretary Windom in forbidding the issuing of retail liquor tax receipts to persons in Oklahoma, and that of Attorney-General Miller in ordering the prompt arrest of every one who takes liquor into that territory, will be approved by all classes except the whiskey ones.

In the town of Bensboro, Ireland, where John G. Richardson employs 3,000 people in the manufacture of Irish linen, no liquor has been sold for forty years as a result there is neither police, man, prison, pawnshop nor pauper in the town.

The authorities in Holland have decreed that women cannot serve on a school board. In Sweden it has been decided that they can.

This Little Poem—A Clipping from the Washington Post—was sent me to-day by the thoughtful, my friend, Mrs. L. R. Messenger. I think it worthy of a place in my journal. From every line there breathes a beautiful admonition that should take deep root in every soul. The words are so simple, so plain, so pure, so true, so full of meaning, so full of hope, so full of faith, so full of love, so full of wisdom, so full of grace, so full of glory, so full of life, so full of light, so full of truth, so full of beauty, so full of goodness, so full of kindness, so full of gentleness, so full of meekness, so full of lowliness, so full of soberness, so full of
